CAFÉ DE PARIS

CHEZ BOUBIER · GENEVA · EST. 1930

Toujours imitée, jamais égalee

THE SECRET SAUCE

In 1930, Chef Boubier invented a sauce so singular it outlived everything else he ever created — named after his restaurant on Rue Mont-Blanc 26, Geneva. Four generations later, one man holds the secret: Mr. François Vouillamoz, who prepares it in his laboratory beneath the original restaurant and ships it by air to every table. Inherited by one person per generation. Never sold. Never replicated.

THE RITUAL OF THE TABLE

Your cut arrives raw and rested. The sauce is poured at your table, over a living flame — a tradition unchanged since 1930.

BEFORE THE STEAK

Made in-house, daily

Fresh Bread, White & Brown

Baked daily, never reheated.

Herb Butter de Maison

Thyme, rosemary, parsley, coriander — piped to order.

The Black Olive Dip

Black olives blended smooth with premium olive oil.

THE CUTS

Served with The Chef's Salad and unlimited House Frites

Le Suprême — Wagyu 9

SAR 575

Australian Wagyu Striploin · Marbling Score 9

The fat is so dense it softens before the flame touches it. Limited daily — once gone, no second batch tonight.

Rarest cut · While it lasts · 1000 Kcal

Le Marbré — Wagyu 7

SAR 445

Australian Wagyu Striploin · Marbling Score 7

The point where fat becomes a flavour system. Deeply indulgent, perfectly balanced.

Wagyu certified · 790 Kcal

Le Noir — Black Angus

SAR 390

Black Angus Tenderloin · 200g

A richer, more pronounced flavour — naturally smoother in texture, deeper in character.

880 Kcal

Le Filet

SAR 295

Australian Tenderloin · 200g · Silk-fine texture

Lean, tender, virtually without resistance — it dissolves rather than chews.

700 Kcal

The Classic

SAR 220

Australian Striploin · 200g · Original cut, Geneva 1930

The cut Monsieur Boubier chose in 1930. It has not needed to change since.

550 Kcal

INCLUDED WITH EVERY CUT

The House Frites — Fresh potato, never frozen, double-fried. · The Chef's Salad — Fresh from Holland, 120g, tossed in our own Dijon-and-herb dressing at your table.
